By the Wayside.

—Good bye. God be with each and every one of you, always.
—By two o'clock Sunday, there were 18 automobiles parked near the assembly grounds.
—Mrs. Sallie McKinney's cup of joy was more than filled in being able to again greet so many of her former students.
—A number of our prominent citizens from all over the county came Sunday to hear Senator Gore, and they were not disappointed.
—No one enjoyed their home coming more than did Dr. J. T. Butler. It was a continuous hand shake and kindly greeting from his coming to his going.
—Dr. Gelvin and Ed Denny and their wives, of Fillmore, camped; they entertained Mrs. C. W. Spicer and Miss Harris, also of Fillmore, for a few days.
—It is regrettable, indeed, that so many failed to register, but we believe we have succeeded in getting the names of the larger portion of those who came back home.
—It was worth coming back just to see that little coterie get together once more: "Billy" Nies, Joe Batchelder, Dan Martin, Jim Brown and Ferd Rostock. Things were kept hot in the old town when they were young.
—Music, furnished by Thatcher's Military Band, was greatly enjoyed by the crowds. This band is a home enterprise and one of which we all are proud. The boys show steady improvement under Edgar Thatcher's leadership. They all looked nice in their new suits.
—The earliest of the early settlers, who came home, was Ben F. Potter, who came to the Platte Purchase in 1839, and was present at the original town lot sale in Platte City, near which place he located. In 1840, he went to White Hall, north of Savannah, and, in '49, came to Holt, near Oregon.
—Both Sundays were given to religious services and union Sunday school work, and able sermons were delivered by Spillman Riggs, Rev. Chilton and Lincoln McConnel, on the first Sunday, notwithstanding the wetness. On the second Sunday, Rev. Calfee preached an excellent sermon and in the afternoon the principal address was delivered by United States Senator Gore.
—All our sister cities sent large delegations, especially on Tuesday—Home-Coming Day; coming to meet former associates of the old town: some grew to manhood and womanhood in Oregon, and no doubt, it made them happy, indeed, to come back to their old home town. They also sent large delegations to hear Senator Gore, and we'll bet that no one enjoyed his address more than Sam Kahn, of the Big Lake. It is impossible for us to particularize in this respect.
—The following had tents and stayed at the grounds all or part of the time: Bert Lynch and Hugh Harsha, C. D. Zook, T. C. Dungan, Tom Curry; Geo. Young, of Mound City; C. E. Munn, Mrs. Emma Bragg;

O. P. Botkin, of New Point; Roy Gelvin and Ed Denny, of Fillmore; Albert Markt, Sherman Hibbard, Fred Cook, Asby Greene, Harold Hoffman, Louis Pinkston, Corbon Markland, Geo. Kunz, Johnson Rayhill, A. W. King, Robert Montgomery, Rev. Calfee, G. Cummins, H. K. Hasness, A. H. Greene, T. L. Price, M. R. Martin, Geo. Lehmer, Cora Frye, R. G. Ruley, Joe Murray, Kunkel and Pollock, Roy Kunkel, Will Bragg and Rosa Noellsch.

We Celebrate Ourselves.

Let us, now that the week is ended, make a tour of introspection, hunt up the record and look into our hearts, take stock, as it were, cast up the account, and strike a balance, if we can, to our own good and the glory of God and the grand old little city that stands on the hill.

Through the Window Pane.

The show window of Charles Kooch, our clothier, was the spot where all congregated in bunches, and talked of the times gone by and of the familiar faces of the long ago, for in that window was a most remarkable collection of photographs, tin types and daguerreotypes of those who were familiarly known in our city in the days gone by: some are sleeping in the silent city; some have wandered far from the rooftop shade; some are still with us, but many are bent with years. Mr. Kooch conceived this feature of our "Home-Coming" and the people responded heartily to his call, and they "dug down" into every nook and corner of their homes and the old albums brought forth, to find a picture of relative or friend, and these were turned over to Mr. Kooch, who symmetrically arranged them in his window. Here you could look upon the picture of father, mother, sister, brother, old sweetheart, or school chum. The former business man and gray-haired grandpas and grandmas and papas could look upon the picture and see themselves when they were mere tots. It was a happy thought of Mr. Kooch's and none but he would have thought of such, and our people appreciated it. Through the window you could see:
